

American
Gov

PS 1200
Meagher

Quiz

1. What city did American neo-Nazis select for a demonstration in 1978?
a. Selma, AL
b. New York, NY
c. Skokie, IL
d. Picayune, MS
2. If a controversial demonstration is planned, local authorities cannot deny a permit based on the suspicion that violence might result. Instead, the local government must provide security for the event using which one of the following legal standards?
a. Neutrality
b. Imminent danger
c. Least restrictive means
d. Preferred position
3. The "fire analogy" was articulated in which one of the following decisions?
a. Gitlow v. New York
b. Schenck v. US
c. Lemon v. Kurtzman
d. Synder v. Phelps
4. When written, the US Bill of Rights applied to the states. TRUE or FALSE?
5. The "fire analogy" is used by the courts today. TRUE or FALSE?
6. "The marketplace of ideas" concept is used to restrain free speech rights. TRUE or FALSE?
7. The distribution of anti-draft circulars resulted in Benjamin Gitlow being arrested. TRUE or FALSE?
8. The First Amendment protects free speech TRUE or FALSE?
9. The idea that free speech rights are more important than others is neutrality. TRUE or FALSE?
10. Hillary Clinton won the national popular vote. TRUE or FALSE?

Quiz key