

Political Science 90
Moagher

1. Which one of the following had a direct influence on the writing of the Declaration of Independence?
 - a. Thomas Hobbes
 - b. Niccolo Machiavelli
 - c. John Locke
 - d. Hannah Arendt
2. Town hall meetings are common in which part of the United States?
 - a. South
 - b. Midwest
 - c. Great Plains
 - d. Northeast
3. Under this model of democracy, American voters would decide whether to attack Syria.
 - a. Procedural
 - b. Substantive
 - c. Participatory
 - d. Elite
4. The Great Compromise is also known as _____
5. Who was the first president under the Articles of Confederation? _____
6. When a federal judge or president is accused of crimes which body of the Congress prepares the charges? _____
7. When a federal Judge or president is accused of crimes the _____ process has been used.
- 8- Which one of the following is credited with heightening awareness of elite theory in the United States?
 - a. Max Weber
 - b. C. Wright Mills
 - c. James Madison
 - d. None of the above
8. If President Assad of Syria, after having being exiled to country "B" is arrested by officials from country "C" while visiting there then _____ has been applied.
9. Traditionally which one of the following has governed the internal affairs of nations?
 - a. Universal jurisdiction doctrine
 - b. The Nuremburg trials
 - c. National sovereignty doctrine
 - d. Crimes against humanity
10. James Madison was not the primary author of the Federalist Papers. TRUE or FALSE?
11. Bill Clinton proposed "electronic town hall meetings." TRUE or FALSE?
12. Another name for the Great Compromise is the 3/5 Compromise. TRUE or FALSE?
13. Marbury v. Madison established the precedent for presidents to go to war without authorization from Congress. TRUE or FALSE?

14. Another name for the elastic clause is _____

15-18. Provide the names of the four models used that purport to answer the "who governs?" question in political science:

15.

16.

17.

18.

19. This quiz makes me want to jump for joy. TRUE or FALSE?

20. According to this political theorist, conditions in the state of nature are not necessarily bad _____.

21. According to one political theorist who described a state of nature, only an _____ can justify breaking the social contract.

22. According to Karl Marx, the result of the Industrial Revolution was the formation of large organizations, including in governments the development of a permanent government. TRUE OR FALSE?

23. What's the name of Hobbes's book? _____.

24. At the Constitutional Convention, the _____ was the proposal of the large states.

25. Marx believed that class conflict would eventually result in the establishment of a dictatorship and that this would represent pure communism. TRUE OR FALSE?

Extra Credit (1 point each)

EC. Theoretically, the individual has more ability to break the social contract in the political thought of _____.

EC: This president, by invading Mexico, established a precedent that gradually moved the war-making power from the Congress to the presidency. _____.

EC: What was the preferred method of punishing individuals who did not support the American Revolution?