

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Founded in 1946 and headquartered in Milford, New Hampshire (USA), Hitchiner Manufacturing Co., Inc. is the premier supplier of complete-to-print, high-volume, complex thin-wall investment castings and fully-finished casting-based subassemblies and components to industry. The company leads the industry in volume production, reduced lead-times and just-in-time manufacturing. Hitchiner produces castings in hundreds of different alloys for a broad spectrum of global markets and customers that include the leaders in the automotive, aerospace, and other industries.

ASSOCIATE ENGINEERS – Engineering Development Program

3 positions available

We are excited to introduce Hitchiner Manufacturing's Engineering Development Program. During this training program, new hires will be introduced to investment casting concepts at Hitchiner's R&D center in both classroom and shop floor environments which will prepare you for a position within operations/manufacturing upon completion.

The classroom and shop floor training includes:

- Introduction to Investment Casting Basics
- Safety
- Mold Components
- Wax Process
- Shell Process
- Casting Process
- Finishing
- Inspection
- Laboratory
- Metallurgy
- Prototype Casting

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Engineering - mechanical, manufacturing, or materials.
- Prior internship experience in a manufacturing environment.
- Must possess excellent communication skills - written and verbal.
- Must possess excellent computer skills to include MS Office.

HOW TO APPLY

- Apply online through Hitchiner's career site:
- <https://www.smartrecruiters.com/HitchinerManufacturingCoInc>
- Please include resume along with cover letter, to include salary requirements.
- No phone calls please.