

Coronavirus Information: Please familiarize yourself with regulations (“Miner Roadmap”) and latest updates by frequently visiting <http://coronavirus.mst.edu>

Required Technology: Reliable internet connection, desktop or laptop, webcam, software needed to scan handwritten assignments in the correct order into one single pdf.

Statement about Copyright, FERPA, and Use of Video: It is vitally important that our classroom environment promote the respectful exchange of ideas. This entails being sensitive to the views and beliefs expressed during discussions whether in class or online. Please speak with me before recording any class activity. It is a violation of University of Missouri policy to distribute such recordings without my authorization and the permission of others who are recorded.

Student Honor Code and Academic Integrity: See <http://stuco.mst.edu/honor-code>. Page 30 of the Student Academic Regulations handbook <http://registrar.mst.edu/academicregs/conductofstudents> describes the student standard of conduct relative to the University of Missouri System’s Collected Rules and Regulations section 200.010, and offers descriptions of academic dishonesty including cheating, plagiarism, sabotage, and unauthorized use of artificially generated content, any of which will be reported to the Dean of Students.

Disability Support Services: If you have a documented disability (<http://saat.mst.edu>) and anticipate needing accommodations in this course, you are strongly encouraged to meet with me early in the semester. You will need to request that the Disability Services staff send a letter to me verifying your disability and specifying the accommodation you will need before I can arrange your accommodation.

Title IX: Missouri University of Science and Technology is committed to the safety and well-being of all members of its community. US Federal Law Title IX states that no member of the university community shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, or be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Furthermore, in accordance with Title IX guidelines from the US Office of Civil Rights, Missouri S&T requires that all faculty and staff members report, to the Missouri S&T Title IX Coordinator, any notice of sexual harassment, abuse, and/or violence (including personal relational abuse, relational/domestic violence, and stalking) disclosed through communication including but not limited to direct conversation, email, social media, classroom papers and homework exercises. Missouri S&T’s Equity Officer and Title IX Coordinator is Dr. Paul Hirtz. Contact him directly (equity@mst.edu; (573) 341-7734; 900 Innovation Drive, Suite 500) to report Title IX violations. To learn more about Title IX resources and reporting options (confidential and non-confidential) available to Missouri S&T students, staff, and faculty, please visit <http://equity.mst.edu>.
