Economic downturns have brought challenges to job markets worldwide, yet Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) positions continue to be among the top-growing and the best-paying jobs. An ERP minor or certificate will add competitive advantages to your Missouri S&T degree.

Find out more about the ERP Program at one of two information sessions scheduled. The session will include information on various curriculum paths, ERP or SAP certification options, and career opportunities, in addition to question and answer time and opportunities to interact with ERP faculty.
